

What is Your Victories Story?

"Victories has been instrumental in my personal growth. It's helped me deepen my existing relationships, develop new, life-long friendships, and feel empowered to not only change careers and follow my heart, but also pursue my personal journey to strive to be my best, most authentic self." -RICH

"Victories has helped me turn inward to ask the often overlooked question, 'What's important to ME?' Through Victories, I've learned that living my values gives me relevance - something all men deeply yearn for. Victories helped me attain it." -BRIAN

Your Story Matters

We ask you to tell us your Victories story. Share with us and our community how your involvement in Victories has impacted your life. What affects one person, affects us all.

If you are willing to share your story, please email admin@victoriesformen.org.

Pay It Forward

As you make your end-of-year giving plans, please remember how Victories has impacted your life and make a donation to support Victories in its continuing mission to strengthen our communities. Donate online at www.victoriesformen.org/donate.

"My journey to enrichen my life has been supported for the last three years by a group of amazing, thoughtful, and caring men. I will always be grateful to Victories for these meaningful connections formed while participating and serving others—it is among the most valuable work of my life." -STEVE

"Victories to me is about ongoing connection and relationship. My marriage is better than ever, and I have friends now, people I love and trust. My work in Victories has made this possible." -NILES

